Camp Personnel

John Tharp, Director

Coach Tharp is entering his third season as Head Coach of Hillsdale College Men's Basketball. The Chargers earned a 16-11 record while hosting a first round GLIAC Conference Tournament game for the first time in school history. In his first season at Hillsdale College, Tharp led the Chargers to a 14-14 mark earning a trip to the GLIAC Conference Tournament after a one year absence. Tharp came to Hillsdale College from Lawrence University, where he is the school's all-time winningest coach. Tharp guided his teams to 4 conference championships, four league tournament championships, an Elite Eight appearance, and a #1 national ranking in Division III.

Dan Evans, Supervisor

Coach Evans is entering his third season on the Hillsdale College men's basketball coaching staff. Evans played for Coach Tharp at Lawrence University in Wisconsin from 2002-2005. Evans was the team's starting point guard for two years, and led Lawrence to back-to-back regular season conference titles and back-to-back conference tournament championships. He was named honorable mention All-Conference as a senior, and helped the team advance to the Division III Elite Eight as a junior and the second round of the NCAA Division III national tournament as a senior.
